CLIENT FEEDBACK

"Beaven is a highly engaging speaker who has tremendous talent in capturing the attention of her audience both in person and through digital discussion. Her wealth of knowledge about children and parenting is skillfully delivered with her signature "down-to-earth" approach. As a parent myself, it is easy to become defensive towards any parenting coach but that is not the case with Beaven. She is truly a professional whose practical and authentic presentation thrall her audience every time."
